STAYING WHILE OUT HIKING SAFE

↳ The mountains are a natural setting. There are always risks but these walks are not technically difficult and do not follow dangerous routes (rocks, aerial passages...). You are responsible for yourself: you must be equipped to help yourself and those with you. Choose a route within your capabilities and be prepared to turn back if the weather deteriorates (storms, fog...).

BE PRUDENT BEFORE SETTING OFF

Tell someone of your planned route and the time you expect to return (family, host...).

Make sure you are well-equipped: take good walking boots, hat and sunglasses, warm clothes (it could be windy and cold at altitude), food and drink.

Do not take any short-cuts; leaving the marked trail is often the quickest way to get lost!

LE LAC DE VALLON

LAKE'S EMERALD-GREEN WATERS HAVE A SURPRISING PAST...

- ➔ D At Bellevaux, head for the Vallon lake (6 km) and park in the car park when you arrive. Cross the road and walk up the forest path which passes the hamlets of Court Champ and Grand Champ.
- 1 Carry on along the forest path to the fork in the path, taking the path on the right that heads down into the forest as far as the Chèverrie. Then cross the road and head to “the Tête au Moine” restaurant, before continuing downhill through the field between two ski lifts, to the Brevon river where the path heads to the right, leading to the Chapelle Saint-Bruno esplanade.
- 2 Continue towards the Croix des Chartroux but watch your footing, and children’s, as the path can be slippery when it rains. The path heads uphill into the forest, as far as the Cascade de Diomaz waterfall (1 195 m). Have a look for the cross carved into the rock by the monks, which signals the limit of their domain. Look hard, and remember you could be standing on it!
- 3 Turn round and head back the way you came to Chapelle Saint-Bruno. Take the path on the left which will take you along the lake and back to the car park where you set out.

A DISCOVERY WALK
"L'APPEL DE LA MONTAGNE"

The Vallon lake is one of the Geosites in the Chablais Geopark. Explanatory panels tell the story of the Geopark and Vallon lake.

In the heart of Bellevaux, a discovery trail “The call of the mountains” awaits (L’Appel de la Montagne). Answer the call (suitable for families) using the booklet and the 7 resort “trials”. Information and booklet sales (5€) from the Alpes du Léman Tourist Office.

LE MONT FORCHAT

Optimal detour is not recommended with children.

+160 m

2h

A DISCOVERY WALK
THE "SHADOW IN THE MEADOW"

What might the sound of galloping be in the night? Who are these shadowy figures rising from the bog? "Fanfoué du Terrebut" tells the strange story of the black rider and the surprising events that are linked to the Très le Mont meadows. In fact, the pasture lies at the foot of Mont Forchat and is a place climbers headed for before going on to conquer nearby summits. The 2 hour walk takes visitors deep into this magnificent venue, which is as grandiose as it is accessible for all. Experience what it used to be like in this Alpine meadow where people lived and worked for four months of the year.

Booklets available for sale 5 € in Tourist Office of Alpes du Léman.

A MAGNIFICENT WALK AND A BREATHTAKING VIEW FROM LAKE GENEVA TO MONT BLANC!

- D From Lullin, head to the car park at Très le Mont, passing by the Col du Feu (6 km). From the car park, follow the dirt track, then take the path to the left that goes up towards the forest of pine and beech trees. Stay on the main path, follow the Black Rider.
- 2 Return by the same route.
- V

START OPTION (more difficult)

From the starting point, you can ride up Mount Forchat via the Encrenaz Pass (1429 m) but the trail is more difficult so beware!

DES CHALETS DE LA BUCHILLE

A PRETTY WALK IN ALPINE MEADOWS

→ D At Bellevaux, head towards the chalets at Buchille, via the hamlet at Bossons. The track rises to the meadows at Buchille (6,5 km); leave your car below the chalets in the little parking area and take the track that heads up and to the right, towards the Pertuis chalets.

- 1 The path heads gently uphill through Alpine meadows to the Pertuis chalets (alt. 1 585 m) where you'll be able to see the Mévonne chalets at the foot of the sheer face of Mont Billiat and the Rocher du Jotty. Far away, from north to south, are the peaks of the Mémises, Dent d'Oche and Cornettes de Bise. Further away still you'll see the Swiss Valais mountains.
- 2 Return to the Buchille chalets by the same route.

AUX CHALETS DE PERTUIS

This walk explores the high altitude meadows of la Buchille, between Mont Billiat and Ireuse summit. In the old days some 300 cows were kept here. Today, dairy farmers live here from June to September so they can milk the cows twice a day.

Please keep dogs on a lead, so they do not disturb the cattle.

The walk also provides the opportunity to see common high meadow plants: yellow gentian and Alpine anemone...

LA CHAPELLE DES PAS

A SHADED WALK WITH A LAKE GENEVA VIEW

- D From Reyvroz church, take the road uphill to the Chapelle des Pas and follow the GR5 route signposted in red and white.
- 1 Once you arrive at the first oratory, carry on straight ahead to the next one, the Chapelle des Pas. The route meanders nicely in the shade of spruce and beech trees for around 30 minutes until you reach the Chapelle

- des Pas. Along the way you can see Lake Geneva and views of the Lower Chablais countryside, through gaps in the trees.
- 2 Head back the way you came and take a few minutes to find out more about the Chablais Geopark from the details posted on the information panel near the church, which indicates the “Belvédère de Reyvroz” Geosite.

THE GEOPARK AND GEOROUTE

The Chablais Geopark stretches from the southern shore of Lake Geneva to the peaks of the Portes du Soleil. It explores man and the Earth's shared history.

23 emblematic geosites that are independent yet complementary help explain how the Alps were formed, while also showing the countryside in a new light and helping us enjoy the riches on our doorstep.

The summit of the Tréchauffé Peak is very aerial!

+ 220 m

1 h 10

A PRETTY CIRCUIT OFFERING A MAGNIFICENT VIEW OF LAKE GENEVA

- D Park on the Tréchauffé Pass car park near the goat fold (6km above La Forclaz). From the car park, backtrack about 200 m towards the Tréchauffé chalets.
- 1 Take the trail on your right hand side that goes up to the Pointe du Sangeon. At the Aiguille Pass (1 400 m), take the trail on your left hand side to get to the Belvedere de Tréchauffé via the Pointe de Sangeon. While you are there, take the time to discover the Chablais Geopark's facilities and admire the wonderful scenery spreading out over Lake Geneva.

- 2 Then go down from the Belvedere and take the trail that runs under the road on your right hand side towards the Tréchauffé chalets to get to the Tréchauffé Pass car park.

ALTERNATIVE ROUTE

At the Aiguille Pass, take the trail on your right hand side to get to the Pointe de Tréchauffé* where the panorama is truly splendid. Then backtrack to continue along the Pointe du Sangeon loop.

* Be careful!
The summit is very exposed as the southern and eastern side are cliffs (hold children's hands). It's definitely worth climbing up to the Tréchauffé Peak as there's a breathtaking view: Lake Geneva, the Jura mountains, the lower part of the Vallée d'Aulps (la Vernaz and the Mévonne cliffs).

TRÉCHAUFFÉ ALPINE PASTURE

These 50 ha of woods and alpine pastures constitute an unspoilt natural area that's home to a goat farm. Goat cheese is made here and you're free to visit the farm or to have a meal at the farm restaurant. The Tréchauffé goats are real Alpine goats from the "chamoisée" breed. They produce an extremely rich milk which is transformed into cheese right after milking time at the Tréchauffé farm. This cheese is called "chevrotin" and it is officially protected to guarantee its quality. Three other Alpine cheeses share this accolade (Tomme, Abondance, Beaufort). The architecture of the Chalets in the Alpine pasture is typical of the Chablais: the lowest part of the building is made of stone. The rest of is built of wood. In the past, families used to stay in these chalets for 5 or 6 months to allow goats and cows to graze peacefully on the lush grass.

THEMED NATURE WALK: FAUNA, FLORA AND DRAW!

→ D At the town hall, go to the wooden information panel that describes the walk and follow the Tarmac road to the Plan de la Chaux. At the end of the trail, continue for about 100 m and you will get to a drawing table. Take some time and learn how to draw a landscape.

1 Pass behind the concrete building and go down on your right hand side. Along the way, you will see various stations where you can learn lots of things such as recognizing certain trees and calculate their age. A 2nd drawing table is waiting for you!

2 The path snakes through the forest until the pink marble quarry of La Vernaz. Continue on the forest track until you come to the Tarmac road and follow it until the first big bend before le hameau du Gerdil. Take the path on your left which cuts across country, following the edge of the forest until you come across a little stream and cross an orchard. In La Villaz with its typical architecture, take the first road the trail goes up to the church where the last drawing table will teach you how to draw it!

A DISCOVERY WALK

THE HUNT FOR ONCLE JACQUES TOUR

For children, a mystery tour following in the footsteps of a mysterious character from the village of le Biot... Use this guide to find hidden clues to track down the identity of this person. You'll need to look all over the village! The game, which will take you about two hours, is suitable for children and adults and is nothing more than a gentle stroll. It's a great opportunity to find out a little more about the history of le Biot too!

On sale in Vallée d'Aulps Tourist Office to 1,50 € (reduced price for Multi Pass holders).

A GENTLE STROLL THROUGH MEADOWS AND WOODS

- ➔ D Start from Les Culées, 5 km from Seytroux village. Drive to the end of the Tarmac road and then follow the forest road for 600 m. Park your car next to the wooden signpost.
- 1 Follow the forest path, towards Col de La Balme. At l'Avanchère, take the path on your right, towards Col de La Balme (alt. 1 445 m). Before heading uphill through Alpine pastures, cross the little wooden bridge (called "mouilles" locally), which is a handy way to avoid walking in the boggy terrain.
- 2 At the Col de La Balme, stop a moment so you can admire the astonishing view: in front of you stand the main summits of the Vallée d'Aulps (Pointe de Nantaux, Roc d'Enfer...). Follow the path to Les Culées along the ridge (Les Culées par les Crêtes). The path goes through woods until it reaches La Chette (alt. 1 458 m). Walk down to the chalets of Hautes Culées.
- 3 In Hautes Culées, turn right at the chalets for come back to the Culées but be careful if it's raining as the wooden planks can be slippery when crossing the ford.

The "Terroir and Savoir-Faire" initiative is championed by the local authority, CCHC. By enjoying regional produce, you're supporting local food production, reducing its environmental impact, promoting seasonal produce, helping small businesses and also getting to meet local producers. A special map – "Route Terroir et Savoir-Faire du Haut-Chablais" – is available in tourist offices, in shops and farms!

A WALK THAT EXPLORES THE VILLAGE'S HERITAGE

- D From the tourist office car park, go along the D902 road towards Morzine, then take the little path that heads down to the right (just after the MGEN building) and take the bridge across the Dranse river.
- 1 Next, head towards Moussière with its fine church. Then head to the left to Solféléry hamlet where the road becomes a track.
- 2 Once you arrive at Pont de la Tassonnière, head towards Bas Thex and le Biot village. Go over the bridge and cross the D902 again, before heading up the minor road to Bas Thex.
- 3 At Bas Thex hamlet, head towards Saint Jean d'Aulps. After 15 minutes' walk, you'll arrive at the ruins of Aulps Abbey, with its Visitors' Discovery Centre. Continue along the road to the centre of Saint Jean d'Aulps and back to the tourist office car park.

V At Bas Thex, head towards le Biot for 10 minutes until you reach the Saint Guérin oratory. Saint Guérin was one of the main abbot of Aulps Abbey.

LE DOMAINE DE DÉCOUVERTE DE L'ABBAYE D'AULPS (Discovery Centre)

The Aulps Abbey is a unique site, steeped in history, in an enchanted setting whatever the season. This site features the remains of the Cistercian Abbey "Notre-Dame d'Aulps" with nearly 3 acres of green space, cellars, a former cloister and two gardens (a botanical garden and a medieval kitchen garden). The old monastery farm now houses a discovery centre that is unique in France, dedicated to the daily life of the monks who lived in the mountains in the Middle Ages.

Open every day from 15 June to 15 September, from 10 am to 7 pm. Other periods, from 14 am to 18.30 pm (closed on Saturday). www.abbayedaulps.fr

LE TOUR DU CHAR DES QUAIS

ALPINE MEADOW WALK WITH A MONT BLANC VIEW

- D From the Col de l'Encrenaz (alt. 1433 m), 4 km beyond the village of La Côte d'Arbroz, take the track behind the restaurant-bar.
- 1 At the fork in the path, go right towards Praz. Once you arrive at the signpost for "Les Pâquis" (alt. 1475 m), head left along the track lined with wild raspberries and blackberries up to Col de la Basse (you should allow 40 mins to walk up this 160 m section). From here you can see the Mont Blanc range in front of you and to your right, the Aravis range with its highest peak, La Pointe Percée.
- V For an even better view, walkers with lots of energy can continue across the meadows to the right of the Col de la Basse and up to Char des Quais summit.
- 2 From Col de la Basse (alt. 1636 m), the forest track goes downhill through lush Alpine meadows bursting with Alpine flowers. During the summer months, local Abondance cows graze in these quiet surroundings. You should come across the Aup chalets before arriving back at Col de l'Encrenaz.

This walk goes through the Roc d'Enfer's Natura 2000 site; the aim of this initiative is to protect natural habitats and animals for the common good, while also respecting the economic activity that happens there too.

LE LAC DE MONTRIOND

This stretch of water is the third largest in the county at 33 ha (only Lake Geneva and Lake Annecy are bigger). Montriond's lake was created after a landslide from Nantaux mountain to the northwest. The Geopark information panels detail how the lake was formed (at the car park and in Ardent, with further "Payscope" information at the far end of the lake).

Lots of activities take place at the lake all year. In the summer, the lake becomes a focus for adventure activities with canoeing, kayaking, paddle, swimming (lifeguards from 1st July to 31 August), fishing, pony rides...

Fireworks show: every Saturday on August, a free light and sound spectacular is a hit with thousands of spectators.

A WALK AROUND A LARGE MOUNTAIN LAKE

- D From the car park of the lake, start walking to the far end of the lake. Follow the path along the lake under the cliffs (side of forest). Attention! You can cross VTT and rider.
- 1 At the end of the lake, follow the path which leads you through the forest, towards Les Albertans hamlet, which you'll reach in 10 minutes. Once there, take a moment to admire traditional and local architecture.
 - 2 Carry on walking until Ardent waterfall; you can gaze at it from the bridge which rejoins the main road. In the spring, the huge amount of water creates an impressive sight!
 - 3 Head back to the lake taking the same path and take a moment to admire the Roc d'Enfer in the distance. Carry on to the car park, taking the path on the other side of the lake. Allow 30 minutes to walk to the waterfall and 25 minutes to head back.

Take the Bus

In winter, ice diving enthusiasts take advantage of the lake freezing over; the ice can measure up to a metre thick. There's also cross-country skiing, snowshoeing and other walks to do.

A REINVIGORATING WATERFALL AND GOATS ROAMING FREE!

- ➔ D The footpath sets off from the Avoriaz plateau with quite a steep climb (70 m uphill) up onto the Avoriaz ridge.
- 1 This itinerary then continues downhill, indicated by the words Cascade des Brochaux on signposts. You'll reach this waterfall in about an hour.
- 2 At the waterfall (alt. 1576 m), why not have a break (picnic or lunch) at the Abricotine refuge). Then continue along the route via the flattish footpath who follow the river, signposted to La Lécherette which you'll get to in about 20 minutes.
- 3 Walk down to the village of Lindarets to see the goats (see opposite). From Lindarets village (1467 m), retrace your steps back to la Lécherette to take the "Lindarets" chairlift which will take you back to Avoriaz.

D V By car from Morzine to Montriond: start the circuit by parking at Lécherette (after visiting Lindarets). Take the Lindarets chairlift and start the itinerary at 1 in Avoriaz.

AN EASY WALK WITH CHAIRLIFTS AND A CABLE CAR

→ D From Montriond, head towards Lindarets (8,5km) and park on Lécherette plateau. Take the trail in the direction of the Cascade des Brochaux (Brochaux waterfalls), which can be reached in 20 minutes.

Public works between La Lécherette and les Brochaux.

You can reach Switzerland on this day-long outing and enjoy the diversity of the Portes du Soleil's countryside thanks to the lifts, which operate every day in July and August for uphill and downhill journeys (dates and times from tourist offices). And remember, Switzerland isn't only about chocolate...stop for lunch in Champéry and try local specialties including a rather special cheese toasty (la Croûte au fromage) and le Fendant, a gently effervescent white wine that grows on the terraces and hills above Lake Geneva.

1 You should take the following 3 chairlifts: Mossettes (uphill, French side), Mossettes (downhill, Swiss side) and Crossets II. From the top of the first chairlift (alt. 2277 m), there's a glorious 360° panorama of the French peaks (Roc d'Enfer, Hauts-Forts...) and the Swiss mountains called the Dents du Midi (alt. 3257 m).

Stop!
Passport please!
You are going to Switzerland, so don't forget your ID for customs checks at the border.

2 From the top of Crossets II, walk about 10 minutes to the Croix de Culet cable car which will take you to the centre of Champéry. Return by the same route (remember to take note of lift opening times)!

D Starts from the same point in Avoriaz as walk n°11 (p. 28).

A STROLL ALONG THE DRANSE RIVER

- ➔ D From the Palais des Sports in Morzine, take the path between the swimming pool and the river Dranse, (where there is a marked fitness trail) with three possible loops.
- 1 The 1st loop passes in front of the horse riding centre. You can take the first bridge and come back by via the other side of the river.
- 2 The 2nd loop: you can also continue on to the Dérèches bridge and return as before on the other side of the river.

- 3 The 3rd loop: after passing through the big field, the track goes into the forest, next to the Dranse river, and carries on past the football ground to the bridge (alt. 890 m), which you should cross to come back the other way.

TRACKS ALONG THE DRANSE RIVER

From Morzine, this rustic route takes you along the banks of the Dranse river as it moves down the Vallée d'Aulps, all the way to la Forclaz and la Vernaz. It's an ideal way to explore the villages here in peace, such as Montriond, St Jean d'Aulps and its abbey, or Seytroux, la Baume and le Biot. On foot or on a bike, this route offers a romantic outing that never strays far from the river.

+180 m
to l'Érigné

2h30

Follow Gaspard the fox along the banks of the river Dranse; during your walk, you'll meet various furry, feathery or scaly animals! The route takes in 7 village-resorts.

Information and booklet (2€) from the Tourist Office and Morzine Palais des Sports.

For summer, a free shuttle bus linking the centre of Morzine and the Mines d'Or (gold mines) lake, with several stops along the route de la Manche. See the timetable about the Vallée d'Aulps transportation guide.

A WALK INTO THE VALLÉE DE LA MANCHE

- D From the church, cross the old bridge and pass in front of the library to Rue Bidon. Pass below the road via the metal bridge. The footpath follows the river Dranse and passes the new fire station. Along the path are signs with information about foxes, the riverside environment and the valley's geology.
- 1 When you arrive at the car park for the Nyon cable car, head up to the right until you reach the Nyon waterfall (+ 15 minutes there and back). Follow the same path back down to the car park and continue following the Dranse along the riverbank.
 - 2 Arrival at Érigné flat meadows. Return by the same path.

You can also reach the Mines d'Or lake (allow 1 hour 30 there and back from Érigné).

EXPLORING NYON'S ALPINE MEADOWS

→ D From the Nyon plateau (access by car via the Joux Plane road) take the path that goes through the meadows and up towards the Pointe de Nyon (start from the path opposite the sign at the top of the Pré Favre chairlift, follow the sign for the Nyon-Guerin lake / Joux-Plane lake / Pointe de Nyon).

1 At the sign for Creux du Lauet: 1 480 m, continue towards Lake Nyon-Guérin.

2 You'll arrive quickly at the Nyon Derrière chalets (alt. 1 530 m) and Nyon du Creux (alt. 1 620 m). The Nyon-Guerin lake (an artificial lake created to supply the snow makers in the Morzine ski area) is just behind these chalets. Return by the same route.

You could also take the Pointe de Nyon chairlift to take in some spectacular 360° views. At the summit of the Pointe du Nyon, you can take a new and completely downhill path to the Nyon-Guerin lake. This option offers stunning views of Morzine and the Vallée d'Aulps.

PROTECT YOUR CHILDREN!

In the mountains, children are more vulnerable than adults because they can get dehydrated and tire quickly, and are more sensitive to the cold and the sun, even when it's cloudy. Don't forget to cover their shoulders and neck, which get very exposed when walking! Sun cream, sunglasses and sunhats are strongly recommended as are solid walking boots with good ankle support.

THREE ROUTES IF YOU'RE GOING IN SEARCH OF COWS... AND LOCAL PRODUCE!

- D Start from the Mines d'Or lake and walk up to the Fréterolle chalet (allow 20 minutes). Little descent into the woods as for as mountain refuge of Chardonnière: second pit-stop.
- 1 This is your first pit-stop: try some goat's cheese or cow's cheese (bar and mountain restaurant). Rejoin the path signposted "Col de Cou par la forêt" (Cou pass via the forest). After 5 minutes' walk, turn right towards the Chardonnière refuge (allow 45 minutes). Take the log pontoons across the river (marshy sections).
- 2 At Chardonnière river (alt. 1500 m), continue to follow signs for Chardonnière. You are at the foot of Terres Maudites, this great rock face who closed the landscape to the Dents Blanches. Here, in Plan des Heures, it is not uncommon to see roe deer, marmot or chamois!
- 3 Walk for 10 minutes to the Chardonnière bridge following the stream; keep walking and bearing right to join the footpath on the left which will take you back to Mines d'Or lake (25 minutes). The tour of the Mines d'Or lake: themed Geopark route, equipped with walkways to cross the marshy land where the orchids grow. If you are feeling peckish, the restaurant is your third (gastronomic) stop!

For summer, a free shuttle bus linking the centre of Morzine and the Mines d'Or (gold mines) lake, with several stops along the route de la Manche. See the timetable about the Vallée d'Aulps transportation guide.

HISTORY AND TRADITION CLOSE TO AVORIAZ

- ➔ D From Avoriaz, go to the Falaise sector and walk between the Malinka and Saskia buildings, following signs for Proclou, then below the golf course and into the woods until you reach the mine and its vista.
- 1 From the mine, retrace your steps and turn left onto the footpath that runs below the golf course. Follow the orange and yellow markers through the woods then the wooden signposts for Ferme de Séraussaix where, depending on the time of day, you can watch cheese being made (Tomme and Reblochon), buy cheese and even have a snack.
- 2 From the farm, take the footpath that heads off towards Avoriaz through the meadows, where the flora is abundant and varied. You should get back to the Avoriaz golf course clubhouse in about 40 minutes.
- 3 Once at the golf course, continue straight on and back to Avoriaz, about 20 minutes.

- D  At the Col de la Joux Verte (on the Avoriaz road), go back to the clubhouse and follow the path towards Avoriaz until you reach a turning on your right with a signpost for the mine.

LE LAC VERT PAR MOSSETTES

AN ALTITUDE WALK AT THE BORDER SWITZERLAND...

- D The footpath sets off from the plateau in Avoriaz with quite a steep climb (70 m vertical climb) up onto the Avoriaz ridge.
- 1 This itinerary then continues downhill, with wooden signposts for Cascade des Brochaux. You'll reach this waterfall in about an hour. After stopping at the waterfall, take the Mossettes chairlift.
-  Public works at the level of Brochaux.
- 2 At the top of the chairlift (alt. 2277 m) you'll be in Switzerland (yellow footpath signs). Walk down towards the Lac Vert (alt. 1972 m) and the refuge (40 minutes). You might bump into the local shepherd with his flock of sheep. From the lake, walk up to the Col de Chésery (alt. 1992 m), which marks the French-Swiss border.
- 3 From the pass (col in French) follow signs to the Col de Rochasson (watch out for mountain bikers!).
- 4 At the 1805 m altitude marker, fork left towards Lécherette and Lindarets. The footpath crosses a small stream then continues in wide loops down to Lécherette (40 minutes). Return to Avoriaz by the Lindarets Express chairlift.
- D V By car from Morzine or Montriond: start the circuit by leaving your car at Lécherette (above Lindarets). From here, follow signs for Brochaux and catch the Mossettes chairlift (20 minutes' walk) and take up the itinerary from 2.
-  Public works in this sector in 2019.

ESCAPE TO HAUTS-FORTS TO SEE BLUEBERRIES AND MARMOTS

- D From Jean Vuarnet square in Avoriaz, walk up towards Hauts-Forts until you reach La Bec (alt. 1770 m), the starting point of the footpath called “Morzinettes”, indicated by a signpost fixed onto the rock.
- 1 Follow the track which rises gently next to the cliff face (hold onto children’s hands) and follow the round yellow ground markers leading to Combe du Machon (1775 m). Continue to La Chaux (1750 m) and Plan du Vieux Chalet (1710 m). You might see, and you’ll definitely hear, whistling marmots! Another 20 mins downhill and you’ll arrive at the Morzinettes chalets.
- 2 Morzinettes (alt. 1600 m) is a summer mountain pasture with traditional chalets and pretty views over the Ardoisières valley. Return by retracing your footsteps and then follow signs to “Pied de la Sute”. This footpath goes quite steeply downhill through the forest, to Covagnes via the Plan des Rochers (forest path).
- 3 At Covagnes, catch the cable car back up to Avoriaz.
- D This circuit can be done from Morzinettes: take the shuttle bus to Prodains, catch the cable car up and start at 1.

AN ESCAPE TO LES GETS, USING THE MULTI PASS...

- D After you have taken the Pleney cable car up the mountain (10 mins), take the track towards the orientation table and Belvedere chairlift (10 mins). Keep going straight on alongside the golf course, as far as Chavannes (about 1 hr).
- 2 In Les Gets, you may wish to visit the village, the Mechanical Music Museum (Le Musée de la Musique Mécanique) – allow about an hour – and you may also want to take the Mont Chéry cable car for a mountain walk fantastic views of Mont Blanc.
- 1 From Les Chavannes cable car (alt. 1484 m), head towards Les Gets village by following signposts marked Tour des Portes du Soleil. At La Mouille au Blé, take the right-hand path and continue, descending via La Mouille Ronde (1 hr 10).

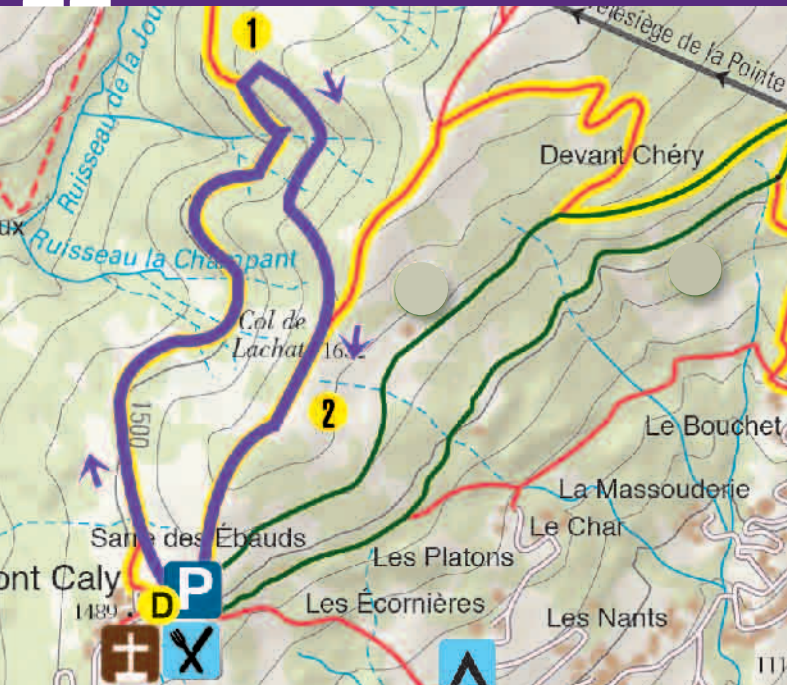

Public works on the slope of Chavannes during the summer of 2019. Follow the temporary markup.

For this walk, remember your Multi Pass for free access to cable cars, the museum and Balad'Aulps Bus.

LE MONT CALY

22

A FINE VIEW OF THE MONT BLANC MOUNTAIN RANGE

➔ From Les Perrières roundabout (on the outskirts of Les Gets, Taninges side), take the road up to Le Mont Caly (5.5 km) and park in the small car park on the right, near the water trough.

D From the car park, follow signs for Le Col de l'Encrenaz and take the path just below the cross. This route has great views of Marcellly Peak.

➔ 1 After a few minutes, you'll reach a fork in the path (Les Quenes, 1530 m) where you need to bear up and to the right, climbing up towards Le Col de Lachat (take care, the start of this climb can be a little steep for children). Reaching the col should take 30 minutes, via a forest path, crossing several streams and admiring views of Praz-de-Lys resort, as well as the mythical Roc d'Enfer.

2 At Le Col de Lachat (1632 m), there are fantastic views of Mont Blanc to take in, before following the ridge on your right. After a short climb, head back down towards Le Mont Caly; this should take about 20 minutes.

LE CIRCUIT DES CHÈVRES

All along this route there are wooden statues to admire, as well as goat herds roaming free near Lassare farm.

You can find other walks in the guide book "Sentiers pédestres des Gets". Information at Les Gets Tourist Office.

You can use the Multi Pass on this walk for a free ride in the cable car.

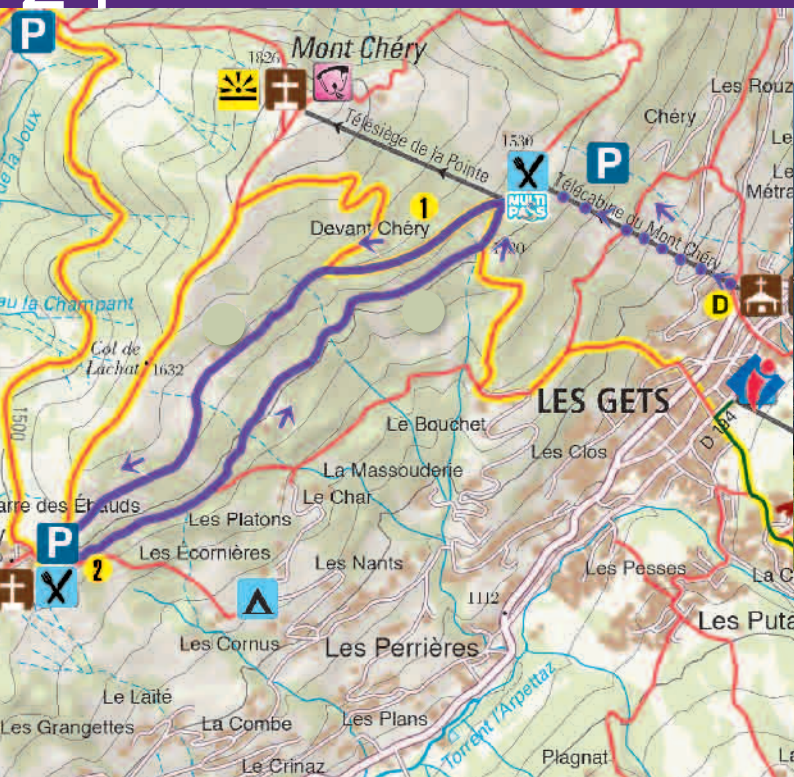

AN ENJOYABLE WALK WHERE CHILDREN CAN GET CLOSE TO GOATS

- D From the centre of Les Gets village, take the Mont Chéry cable car up the mountain. At the top, before setting off on the walk, you can head over to your left to the observation telescope and the orientation table which will help you identify and appreciate the surrounding peaks. Once finished here, head back to the cable car station and take the path to the right that heads down towards Plan Bôdit.
- 1 At Plan Bôdit, head to the left and follow the forest path towards Lassare (alt. 1337 m).
 - 2 At Lassare, head down to the hamlet at Le Cry, then carry on straight towards the hamlet of Longues Poses. Then walk to the left towards La Casta and keep going until you reach Mont Chéry cable car bottom station.

A WALK FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS TO SEE MONT BLANC

- ➔ D Take the Mont Chéry cable car and at the top go left to the Pointe chairlift. You'll pass an observation table and telescope providing an excellent view of Mont Blanc.
- 1 At the fork in the path behind the chairlift, head up to the right to "Devant Chéry" and carry on along the flat towards Mont Caly.

Continue straight ahead to "Sarre des Ébauds" then head downhill towards Mont Caly.

- 2 At Mont Caly, go right to the panoramic viewpoint then continue straight on the main path taking you back to Mont Chéry cable car, which you can take to return to the village centre below in Les Gets.
